To whom this may concern,

In my capacity as the Vice-President of the Tattoo Club Of Great Britain, Tattoo Historian and a Guinness World Record holder, I would like to state that over the years I have visited many tattoo studio's worldwide, and I believe sincerely and honestly that 'Tattoo Ole's at Nyhavn 17 is the world's oldest tattooing studio, that should remain open and preserved as a remarkable piece of historic value and tourist attraction to the Country of Denmark.

It is also a known fact amongst tattooing fans, tattoo artists and lovers of art in general, that Nyhavn 17 is, and Copenhagen has without doubt one of the most important buildings in tattooing history that can be traced back to the 1880's, an honour no other Country can boast.

And in tattooing circles Majbritt Petersen, Nyhavn 17's proprietor, is a remarkable artist in her own right, and is a credit and carries herself in a true and just manner, and is a highly regarded professional tattoo artist.

Yours faithfully...Paul John Sayce
